

MY STORY

Meet Sarah

Hi, I am Sarah, an Independent civil celebrant, wife to Wayne, Mum to two grown up children and proud Gran to my beautiful granddaughter.

I come from a large close-knit family, where I have always been the one that goes the extra mile to make people feel special. Whether it is the smallest detail or a big moment, I believe it is those personal touches that truly matter.

Today, as a celebrant, I bring all of that with me: kindness, warmth, a sense of humour and a calm, organised approach. I create ceremonies that are meaningful, personal and truly memorable.

WITH LOVE,

Sarah

WELCOME

Every story deserves to be beautifully told.

Each life story is unique, and I believe life's most precious moments deserve to be celebrated, commemorated, and reflected upon in a way that feels truly right for you.

Whether you are planning a wedding, a funeral, a baby naming or a vow renewal, I take the time to get to know you, listening carefully to your story or the story of your loved one. From our first contact, I am fully invested in creating a ceremony that feels authentic, meaningful and completely personal.

“No templates, no 'one size fits all', just a thoughtfully crafted service that reflects your wishes, your values and your voice.”

Fully accredited by The Academy of Professional Celebrants and fully insured, I bring professionalism, adaptability and reliability to every ceremony I deliver, along with warmth, care and attention to every detail.

WHAT I OFFER

Ceremonies I create

Each ceremony is a genuine collaboration, shaped entirely around you, your loved ones and the moment you are marking.

Weddings

FROM £500

A truly personalised ceremony that reflects who you are as individuals and as a couple. I'll support you through vows, rituals and every detail, so on the day you can simply be present.

Funerals & Memorials

£225

A personalised, respectful ceremony that truly reflects your loved one and the life they lived. Delivered with sensitivity, warmth and care.

Naming Ceremonies

FROM £250

A beautiful way to welcome your child into your family. Space for promises from the special people in their life, shaped around your story.

Vow Renewals

FROM £400

Honour your love, reflect on the life you've built and reaffirm your promises. Renew your original vows, write new ones, or weave a little of both.

THE JOURNEY

How we work together

- 1 We meet
A relaxed, no-obligation chat, in person, by phone or over video, so we can get to know each other and talk through what you have in mind.
- 2 I listen
I gather your story, the people, the memories, the values and the small details that make this moment yours, so the ceremony feels genuinely personal.
- 3 I craft
I carefully write your ceremony from scratch and share it with you to review. You can revise it as many times as you need until every word feels right.
- 4 I deliver
On the day I make sure everything flows seamlessly, so you can simply be present with the people you love and enjoy the moment you are marking.
